ABOUT THE PREVIOUS MEET

The last meeting was a joint meet with RC Surat East and RC Udhna. The agenda was "Know your Fellow Rotarians" and what could be better than a picnic to make the agenda more meaningful. Rotarians and their families got together and went to Gaiteshwar, on the banks of river Tapti. A small but enthusiastic group led by President Sunil D'souza represented our club

Rotarians visited the village and met the Sarpanch. Members went around the village and saw the community centre. After that, members visited the Shiv temple situated there. This temple is of religious fame and is revered by one and all.

Members then enjoyed a boat ride on the Tapti meandering across the plains. Overwhelmed by the power of serenity and tranquillity, few members jumped into the river and enjoyed the cool waters. Not to be left behind, everyone rushed in and enjoyed splashing and splurging around. It was a welcome change from the tied up routines back at home

'Why English is so hard

Never laugh at a person's efforts to speak or write English correctly. Of the four major languages it is the most difficult to learn. Here's why.

We'll begin with a box, and the plural is boxes

But the plural of ox should be oxen not oxes

Then one fowl is goose, but two are called geese.

Yet the plural of moose should never be meese

You find a lone mouse or a whole lot of mice
But the plural of house is houses, not hice
If the plural of man is always called men
Why shouldn't the plural of pan be called pen.

The cow in the plural may be cows or kine
But the plural of vow is vows not vine.

And I speak of a foot and you show me your feet,
But I give you a boot; would a pair be called beet ?

If one is a tooth and a whole set are teeth
Why shouldn't the plural of booth be called beeth ?

If the singular is this, and the plural is these,
Should the plural of kiss be nicknamed kese ?

That one may be that and three may be those,
Yet the plural of hat would never be hose.

We speak of a brother, and also of brethren,
But though we say mother, we never say methren.

The masculine pronouns are he his and him,
But imagine the feminine she, shis and shim !

So our English, I Think you will all agree,
Is the trickiest language you ever did see.
