Bulletin series 07/08/04

Last Meet – 30 July 2002

Lights off - Candles on - Take one

'To take or not to take' – When power failure played spoil-sport, this was the very thing that was continuously on, in the mind of the President, until it was finally decided to defer the agenda for the evening 'Elocution and Story Telling Competition' to the 6th of August, 02.

The hard preparatory effort of the tiny tots was mercilessly sacrificed to reasons beyond our control. But one obvious reason for the gathering to be a success was the kindled hope that the meet would be on. And on grew the numbers as one by one the members came in with their little ones.

Not to worry now, the competition is still on. And for those who missed on the preparation, this is the right opportunity to catch up.

The meeting over candle lights was well received as Rotarians were all in there in good numbers and this time piously wearing their lapels – flashing out from dark corners on all sides, adding to the glitter.

Shall we look forward to a double prepared competition in full spirit and strength next week?
